

Conchita Wurst, All I Wanna Do

You ain't talking to me
Been talking to people

I'm not talking to you
We muted the sequel

Cos you and I
We both know why
Been way too high

But nothing really matters now

Too numb to cry
Too far to try
So I

All I wanna do is dancing tonight
All I want is you and me being for life

All I wanna do is dancing hold tight
All I want is you and me being alright

I used to call you home you were my friend
Now we are all alone this is the end

It doesn't matter

You and I together
You and I forever

All I wanna do is dancing tonight
All I want is you and me being for life

Everything is leading up to the truth
Anywhere I turn keep running from you
