

Concrete Blonde, Bloodletting

There's a crack in the mirror
and a bloodstain on the bed -
There's a crack in the mirror
and a bloodstain on the bed -
O you were a vampire and baby
I'm the walking dead
O you were a vampire and baby
I'm the walking dead
(chorus)
I got the ways and means to New Orleans I'm going down by the river where it's warm and green I'm gonna have drink, and walk around I got a lot to think about oh yeah oh yeah There's a rocking chair by the window down the hall
I hear something there in the shadow
down the hall
O you were a vampire and now I am nothing at all
O you were a vampire and now I am
nothing at all
(chorus)
They used to dance in the garden in the middle of the night Dancing out in the garden in the middle of the night
O you were a vampire
and I may never see the light O you were a vampire
and I may never see the light
(chorus)
