

Concrete Blonde, True, Part III

& I will leave this life
& I will know I've done the very best I can

& I will leave behind
stains & pain
& take the blame for who I am

oh I
I tried,
tried to find a way
to hang it all together.
I
wanna ride
off into some wild new morning,
off into forever.
or forever.

& when
I leave this life,
what will you say of me,
you who never knew my heart?

for I will leave behind
the sound of a woman
who knew what was true
from the start.

& I
wanna slide
out of my old hide all
clean & free & better
yeah I
wanna ride off into some wild new morning,
off into forever
yes, forever.
