

Confide, The Bigger Picture

Lately, I've been feeling a light, alive at last.

My eyes have been opened and I can see the path ahead.

Tear down the wall that's been made around you and escape to see it what you've been waiting for

I can see my world.

Pull yourself up.

I can see my world.

Pull yourself up.

Oh do you feel alive?

Can you feel the thirst?

Can you feel the light?

What have great move, at last.

This is perfect.

This is a plan.
