

Conflict, This Is Not Enough

So much for the change, the re-arranging and politicians declared dead So much for the troops forced out of Ireland, The Police abolished?
I read that things had gone too far and awareness had caused concern a~ the top, but their backbone must not crack, so their city will not stop.
We need a whole new ploy, direct our motives and anger, force what we see as right but the system holds our banners. We need that whole new ploy, direct our motives and anger, force what we know as right, make our feelings turn to action Meanwhile, senile morons are shitting bricks cos they know the people have learnt Just who's who and who funds what, It's time those bastards tables burned. But It's all been said In another line. If I've sung It once It's a thousand times, If we don't do it now we' re never gonna break free from the oppression that makes us hate. Free from their law, their hypocrisy, from the war that turns our sunny day grey, Or free all the animals locked In a cage slowly going mad with fists of rage. it's time to overcome 1984, forget that fairytale, slam shut the door. It's time for reality, not false hopes, It's time to show them whose the Joke. It's time to take. It's not too late, so much for our change, our re-arranging. Politicians that ain't dead.
So much for their scum forced out of Ireland, THEY increased the pressure Instead. If things had gone too far, then action will prove FATAL to their props, yeah, that backbone might not break, but their city TEARS APART!!!
