Connells, Take A Bow

i heard you ring, so you'll be there with bells. i know you know, this side of things so well. i'm standing here, and waiting for an answer. and still in awe...

somehow i knew it was impossible and somehow i knew... and it's taking a long time, i knew it was impossible and somehow i knew... yeah i knew this time is closer and somehow, now it's not what i wanted.

think for yourself, it makes no sense to me but i believe. hey, hey, in time you'll know, you've know it all along. to take a bow and leave them with a song.

somehow i knew it was impossible and somehow i knew... yeah i knew

this time is closer and somehow, now it's not what i wanted.

and it's taking a long time i knew it was impossible and somehow i knew... yeah i knew this time is closer, and somehow, now it's closer and somehow it's not what i wanted.
