

Connie Francis, Babys First Christmas

Backup (intro):

And that was the biggest sin of all.

Connie:

It was a sin the way you lied to me,

The way you broke my heart,

But that was not the biggest sin of all.

It was a sin the way you made me cry,

And vowed we'd never part,

But that was not the biggest sin of all.

You promised to be faithful,

And I trusted in you,

Oh, what a sin,

You just couldn't be true.

But the biggest sin of all,

Was when you made believe you were mine,

When there was somebody else,

All the time.

(spoken)

I should have known you didn't love me,

With all those lies that you told,

And I should've known,

That there was another,

When your kisses were so cold,

Yes, I closed my eyes,

Too much in love to see,

Oh, why, did this ever have to happen to me.

(reprise)

Yes, the biggest sin of all,

Was when you made believe you were mine,

When there was somebody else,

All the time.
