

Connie Francis, Breakin In A Brand New Broken

(Don't break the heart that loves you so)

Don't break the heart that loves you, handle it with care

Don't break the heart that needs you, darlin', please be fair

Why do you flirt and constantly hurt me

Why do you treat our love so carelessly

You know I'm jealous of you and yet you seem to try

To go out of your way to be unkind

Sweetheart, I'm begging of you don't break this heart that loves you

Don't break this heart of mine

SPOKEN

Darling, please don't hurt me. Please, don't make me cry. I don't know what I'd do if you'd ever say goodbye. Remember I love you so much and love's life's greatest joy. Please don't break my heart like a child breaks a little toy.

Sweetheart, I'm begging of you don't break this heart that loves you

Don't break this heart of mine

(Don't break this heart)
