

Connie Smith, Go Ahead And Make Me Cry

Go ahead and make me cry
go ahead and make me blue Bring the teardrops to my eyes if that's what you wanna do Go ahead and make me lonely darling I belong to you For you are my one and only
go ahead and make me blue

Darling I could never change
so why should I complain?
Even though you broke my heart it's yours to tear apart

Go ahead and make me live go ahead and let me die
This is all I have to give
go ahead and make me cry
[guitar]
Darling I could never change...
