

Connie Smith, I'd Rather Be A Fool

I guess I'm just the fool they call me for loving you the way I do.
But, I would rather be a fool dear than be so lonely without you.

CHORUS

They tell me that a fool can't miss love.
They tell me that a fool don't know.
But, if I had to live without you
I'd rather be a fool than go.

I guess I'll stay the fool they call me
for without you there's nothing left.
But, I would rather be a fool love,
than be so lonely by myself.
