

Connie Smith, One More Time

Mistakes I have made them and you don't know how much I hate them
But that's me and I don't guess I'll ever change
I don't mean to hurt you heaven knows I hate to hurt you
But here I am to ask forgiveness one more time
One more time I'll ask you to forgive me
One more time I'll come crawling back to you
All I ask is a chance to show just how much I love you
Won't you please take me back one more time
One more time I'll tell you that I'm sorry
But this time I'll get down on bended knees
And I'll cry and beg forgiveness please give me your forgiveness
Won't you please take me back one more time
Won't you please take me back one more time
