

Connie Smith, Tell Another Lie

Tell another lie tell another lie cause that's all you know how to do
But some day you'll be crying just like me when someone tells the same lies to you
[ guitar ]
Saying I'm the first was the first of many lies you've known other loves in the past
It hurts not bein' first but the lies had hurt the worst
Was when you said I'd be the last
Tell another lie tell another lie ...
[ guitar ]
Telling me you care was the second lie you told saying you'd be true was the third
It took a lot of lies but at last I realized you didn't mean one single word
Tell another lie tell another lie ...
