

Conor Maynard, How Am I

(Say oh)

(Say oh)

Tell me why I dreamt last night that you came back and we were doing fine

(Say oh)

When I know that you would only hurt me if you came back in my life

(Say oh)

Oh why'd you tear my heart out without even saying why

No

'Cause now it feels like all that you said to me was just a lie

(Say oh)

How am I

How am I supposed to trust somebody else again

(Say oh)

How am I

How am I supposed to love somebody else again

(Say oh)

Did you change your mind

Or did you never mean it

I thought you were mine

But you left me to bleed

How am I

How am I supposed to trust somebody else again

(Say oh)

Tell me why they say when we were talking you were with another guy

(Say oh)

Maybe that explains why when you left you couldn't look me in my eyes

(Say oh)

Oh why'd you tear my heart out without even saying why

No no no no

'Cause now it feels like all that you said to me was just a lie

(Say oh)

How am I

How am I supposed to trust somebody else again

(Say oh)

How am I

How am I supposed to love somebody else again

(Say oh)

Did you change your mind

Or did you never mean it

I thought you were mine

But you left me to bleed

How am I

How am I supposed to trust somebody else again

(Say oh)

Did you change your mind

Or did you never mean it

I thought you were mine

But you left me here bleeding

You only just got here

You're already leaving my life

(Say oh)

How am I

How am I supposed to trust somebody else again

(Say oh)
Oh, no
How am I
How am I supposed to love somebody else again
(Say oh)

Did you change your mind
Or did you never mean it
I thought you were mine
But you left me to bleed

How am I
How am I supposed to trust somebody else again
(Say oh)
