

Conor Maynard, Nothing But You

You can take all my money
Strip me of all of my pride
Nobody else gotta love me
As long as she's right by my side

Forgive me, Father
For i have sinned through my worship of a woman
I've discovered here

So drag me down to the fire
Surrender me to desire
Paint my soul as a liar
But i don't need nothing
Don't need nothing
Nothing else but you
Nothing but you
Nothing but you
Nothing but you
Nothing but you

Tennessee whiskey and honey
Isn't as sweet as her smile
Sometimes the world can get ugly
But she makes ut worth all the while

Forgive me, Father
For i have sinned through my worship of a woman
I've discovered here

So drag me down to the fire
Surrender me to desire
Paint my soul as a liar
But i don't need nothing
Don't need nothing
Nothing else but you
Nothing but you
Nothing but you
Nothing but you
Nothing but you
