

Considering Lily, Beautiful You

Do do do
do do do
do do do do do do do

You may have dyed your hair a shade that freaks your mother out
It may be green but it looks clean did you try to rinse it out?
You may grill meat at Burger King for a part time job
And you may have your father's name and that name maybe Bob
You may have pierced your body parts one too many times
And have a huge collection of those Japanese wind chimes

Beautiful you all of the time
Jesus in you makes you shine
Beautiful you Beautiful you

You may drive a panel van you painted by yourself
You may have a chess club trophy sitting on your shelf
You may wear flannel everyday and every night to bed
And you might like to always wear a beanie on your head
You may have a rat named Rover for a little pet
Speakers bigger than your bedroom now your deep in debt

Beautiful you all of the time
Jesus in you makes you shine
Beautiful you where ever you go
He sees your heart we see your glow
Beautiful you Beautiful you

Do you see the light in me?
Do you see the joy upon my face?
I only want to be like Him
I only want to hear somebody say

Beautiful you all of the time
Jesus in you makes you shine
Beautiful you where ever you go
He sees your heart we see your glow
Beautiful you all of the time
Jesus in you makes you shine
Beautiful you Beautiful you Beautiful you Beautiful you
