

Conway Twitty, Somewhere Just Out Of Her Mind

Somewhere lost in another world
Nowhere can I find another girl
I lost her then lost me how could I have been so blind
I'm somewhere just out of her mind

I was in her eyes for a while then in her smile
I was in her heart for a time
A man that lost his way when he lost his love one day
Somewhere just out of her mind
Somewhere lost...
Somewhere lost just out of her mind
