

Cool Hand Luke, Window Seats And Last Wishes

a fast escape
it's what i should have done a long time ago
i'll meet you there
don't worry about a thing i've got it all planned out i'm never coming back i've been here for so long i'll finally get what i deserve this plane is soaring on i wonder if they'll miss me i never said a word
oh what tragedy to realize the grass was always green under my own feet
whatever can i do i promised You my life i said i'd give it all
but that was never true life is vanishing mist
i haven't been here for so long i guess i'll get what i deserve this plane is going down God, i hope they miss me
i never said a word (about You)
life is vanishing like mist before my eyes i've lived a lie took so long to realize one more day Lord
