

Corbin Bleu, Champion

Little Jenny with the big brown eyes,
Had a smile that could light the skies.
She had dreams of being a star,
Big dreams of going so far.
But you can't can't choose the life you got.
And you can't choose your mom and pop's,
And hers never did a thing to help.
Most times he was by herself.
So little Jenny got desperate,
And out on the street she went.
Doing things she know she shouldn't,
All she really needed was a friend.
Now baby girl feels oh so low.
Never knew the world was so cold.
But this ain't gotta be the end,
So Jenny if you're listening...
I know there's a fighter,
Deep down inside of,
You my love,
Cause you're a champion.
I know you'll get by cause you're a survivor,
It's true my love cause you're a champion
(Yeah)
Now Jordan had everything,
Straight A's and a record so clean.
OB of the football team,
The type of guy you might envy.
But perfect don't mean you're happy,
He was searchin' for more,
You see,
Never satisfied having the best,
Wanted to live on the edge.
To much time and to much money,
That's a dangerous recipe.
He started trying things he shouldn't have,
Pretty soon it was outta hand.
Lost touch with reality,
Now all he got are shattered dreams.
But this ain't gotta be the end,
So Jordan if you're listening...
I know there's a fighter,
Deep down inside of,
You my love,
Cause you're a champion.
I know you'll get by cause you're a survivor,
It's true my love cause you're a champion
(Yeah)
I know you're going to get through.
Cause you got everything in you,
To carry on (yeah),
You're a champion (yeah)
I know there's a fighter,
Deep down inside of,
You my love,
Cause you're a champion.
I know you'll get by cause you're a survivor,
It's true my love cause you're a champion
(Yeah)
