

Cord, Make It

You never made it lady
You tried to make it on your own
And now it's got you down
It's not so complicated
Four letters never meant a thing
And now it's on your mind
I wish that I could meet you there
Runaway tonight
Catch a ticket on a one way flight
Runaway run away tonight
Cause you won't make it
What ever happened to you?
It seems you faded with no lines
It happens all the time
You couldn't ever say it
It was so hard you were so numb
While I was playing dumb
I wish that I could meet you there
Runaway tonight
Catch a ticket on a one way flight
Runaway run away tonight
Cause you won't make it
Now it's not so bad
To give up on me to get it back for good
Runaway tonight
Catch a ticket on a one way flight
Runaway run way tonight
Cause you won't make it
