

Cord, Movie Star

Empty stares and glances
Movie star romances when the end was never clear
It's hard to see the warning when everyone is mourning
For they way they love to feel
Cause for now you have the prettiest face
And for now you have a familiar taste
That is never around
Have you had enough
Have you had enough of what I'm saying
Have you had enough
Have you had enough of contemplating
Each era brings a new wave, fucked up and it's Tuesday
And I cannot feel a thing
Problems bloom for reasons
Maybe it's the seasons, but it never seems to change
Cause for now you made another mistake from being alone
You give it all to bring you down for good
When you've had enough
