

Cordae, Super

Last year I made seven million didn't have to do a single fucking show
Shout out to my niggas up at Coca-Cola for the check they cut me at the Super Bowl
All my life moments is a super woah, my nigga Dr. Dre, he got a super boat
Last night, I was texting Jack Dorsey, that's the perks you get for being super dope

This is real life, ain't no act in it
All these rap niggas, they be Brad Pittin'
Every little thing I do is mad different
Got my little cousin playing badminton
Gave my lil bro a quick fifty piece
He got the whole mu'fucking trap hitting
I been stacking up all these assets
Can't be conducting any bad business

Like woah, hey, I keep that drip on me, my nigga I'm big homie
Huh, hey, I can't ever slip homie, my momma might flip on me
Like woah, hey, drop top coupe in the mu'fucking summer, I rest my case
Like huh, hey I'mma live life to the fullest with ever single breath I take
Let me tell you niggas some real quick
Hating ass hoe you can suck my dick
Get cold every time that she touch my wrist
I'm the greatest nigga, can't fuck with this
My niggas pull up in them Chevy's and Beamers
We all young and rich, you can't check my demeanor
I just bought a Birkin for my aunt Regina
I been getting money since I was a senior

Last year I made seven million didn't have to do a single fucking show

I be feeling like it's me against the world, but I could give a fuck who my opponent is Niggas asking why I dropped the YBN, I had no other choice, cause we ain't own the shit
And all that janky shit, I'm not condoning it
With a couple niggas, I got a bone to pick
I'm on some movement shit, y'all on some moment shit
But I'll be here forever, y'all can gone quit
We had bad bitches in the new Bentley, just reup'd from that new stimmy
My brotha counting them blue benji's, only feel good when my crew with me
Like whoa, they tried to question my character, young rich and black, they hate me in America
We some real niggas, don't fit the criteria
Don't like yo' vibe not allowed in my area
I entered this game and I came here to change it
Speak my beliefs now they calling me dangerous
Taking the throne and I'm gonna maintain it, I gotta go down as just one of the greatest
So anybody got a problem with me, can't fake kick it, fuck ya politicking
I ain't worried bout it, I know God is with me
Yo piece of mind is worth a dollar fifty
