

Corrosion Of Conformity, Born Again For The Last

When you live your life uptight untrusted but their blind from the grind but only you can see when the bones that you own have long been dusted you realize who you're not supposed to be

I've been told things get better
Isolation grind
My life is Hazy Hazy Hazy
So I'm born again for the last time when your life was lived fully cocked and loaded but your soul was empty through and through it makes me realize maybe you sold it for the dream of a lifetime or maybe two...YEAH YOU

I've been told things get better
Isolation grind
My life is Hazy Hazy Hazy
So I'm born again for the last time

One last stand for this dying man can we get a round of sympathy I think it's too late he was never forward or straight much like the one watching over me

Dizzy with greed now you've got everything you need as you cling to the one who stands second to none walls start to fall at the thought of it all poorer by dawn than I was at the dawn; I'm gone...TAKE ME

I've been told things get better
Isolation grind
My life is Hazy Hazy Hazy
So I'm born again for the last time
