

Cory Lee, Key of C

I really cant remember why
why i loved you
i really cant remember when when i gave a care Everytime i think of you
you keep on fading
and everytime i hear your name i feel nothing deep inside I know that your callin
i know that your tryin to change my mind Anyway that i sing it
it is still the same
your a G out of key
and one note remains
In the key of C
i dont give an F about you
Anyway that i sing it
it is still the same
your a G out of key
and one note remains
In the key of C
i dont give an F about you
I really cant remember why
why i need it
i really cant remember how how you layed me down Now you seem to come around uninvited
but you dont seem to understand or even hear my words
I could sing acapela
or do re mi fa
with an orcastra
you wont change my tune
and one note remains
In the key of C
i dont give an F about you
In the key of C
oh (oh) i know (know)
let go (let go, let go) sitting in the key of C oh (oh) i know that your missin me
let go (let go, let go)
(sitting in the key of C)
I could sing acapela
In the key of C

In the key of C
i dont give an F about you
And you keep on tryin to call me and i see that you are lonely in the key of C (key of C)
i dont give an F about you After all the lies and games heres my note and my note remains
in the key of C
i dont give an F about you
