

Cotton Cat, Parachute man

I look for you but now you're gone.

I'm in the space all alone.

Parachute-man

Parachute-man

Parachute-man.

Half way from white eternity

So close to touch infinity

Parachute-man

Parachute-man

Parachute-man

Day and night falling down

No, no never reach the ground.

I don't care

My life is dancing in the air.

I'm parachute-man...

The night like smoke, stars like sand,

The Earth like big, greedy hand.

Parachute man...

Day and night...

Between the clouds and the death,

Between the wind and the breath,

Parachute man...
