

Count The Stars, Say Anything

I can't lie girl I love your bruises
Sometimes your voice it leaves me useless
There I am a boy with no excuses
I'm wide awake but I can't get up the crowd

Ooo every story starts from here
Ooo and every story ends right here

Just say anything I'll believe you
Just say anything I'll believe

Straight faced you said your close to me now
Slip away this is where I start to blow out
Simple life waiting for the moment
Where you can leave everything behind

Ooo every story starts from here
Ooo and every story ends right here

Just say anything I'll believe you
Just say anything I'll believe
Cigarette burns and liquor turns
Waiting for the shit to hit the fan
Just say anything

Say[[User:berBot|berBot]]

Hold me under the satellite
Call me deep in the moonlight
Hold me under the satellites
Call me deep in the moonlight
Hold me under the satellites
Call me deep in the moonlight
Hold me under the satellites

Ooo every story starts from here
Ooo and every story ends right here

Just say anything I'll believe
Cigarette burns and liquor turns
Waiting for the shit to hit the fan
Just say anything
