

Count The Stars, What I'm Looking For

i know inside, i want to live it's just that i can't live like this the same old ways, the same old days the same old faces

i'm looking for the right things to say when everything is crashing down on me when all you wanna do is sit tight it's what i'm looking for in life well if we all just wait awhile we can't let down so easy now i'm heading out

i'm heading out
i'm heading out out out

why can't i just own up to all my faults, and lack of luck could this be the one thing i truly believe these are my faults, these are my faults, these are my faults faults faults

just hold your perfect sweater around yeah i can't leave tonight just take your perfect, wait...for the time
crawl crawl crawl yeah

just take your perfect, wait...for the time
ooh oohh ooh ooh...
