

Counting Crows, Useless Stuff

(Original by Cracker)

I'm so fucking sick
I'm the king of the world
I'm a genius of useless stuff
Some people they gotta work well I just hang around dreaming up useless stuff
So if I call you from time to time
I said my life is such a drag
I feel like a hag please shut me up Girl would you like to live my life
And I'll be with you tonight
I'll be your useless stuff
Now everybody wants to be our friend so we act real Zen and hang around with movie stars
So if I call you from time to time
I said my life is such a drag
I feel like a hag kick me in the ass
Girl would you like to live my life
and I'll be with you tonight
I'll be your useless stuff
I'll be your useless stuff
Can I be your useless stuff?
