

Course Of Nature, Forget Her

Staring out the window,
I am blinded by
Thoughts surrounding you;
I am hypnotized.

I'm gonna make believe,
You're gonna come with me,
Just give me half a chance,
And maybe you will see;
I'm better.

The day I went away,
it was a big mistake,
Couldn't turn around,
And see your face;
Forget her.

Cause I'd walk a thousand miles
Down this road for you.
And I'd climb the highest mountain,
Touch the sky for you.
For you!
Forget her

I can feel you growing colder
As each day goes by.
I'm just a memory that
You'll forget in time.

I'm gonna make believe,
You're gonna come with me,
Just give me half a chance,
And maybe you will see;
I'm better.

The day I went away,
it was a big mistake,
Couldn't turn around,
And see your face.

Cause I'd walk a thousand miles
Down this road for you.
And I'd climb the highest mountain,
Touch the sky for you.

I will make you believe,
You can count on me,
I'm the one for you.

I would fight to keep
You by my side;
I would die for you.
For you!

Can we make a promise
We'll always keep?
I'll be there for you,
Will you be there for me?

If we make this promise,
You can count on me.
As time goes by,
You'll still be all I need.

Cause I'd walk a thousand miles
Down this road for you.
And I'd climb the highest mountain,
Touch the sky for you
For you!

I will make you believe,
You can count on me,
I'm the one for you.

I would fight to keep
You by my side;
I would die for you.
For you!

Forget her...
