

Courtney Love, Dying

You've seen the crippled dance
Be your money baby, now's your chance

I am so dumb
Just beam me up
I've had it all forever
I've had enough

Remember, you promised me
I'm dying, I'm dying please
I want to, I need to be...
Under your skin
Our love is quicksand,
So easy to drown
They steal the gravity out
From moving ground

Remember, you promised me
I'm dying, I'm dying please
I want to I need to be
Under your skin

And now I understand
You leave with everything
You leave with everything
Remember....

And I now I know that love is dead
You come to bury me.
There's nothing left here to pretend..

Remember you promised me..
I'm dying, I'm dying please
I want to, I need to be
Under your skin

I'm dying I'm dying please
I'm dying I'm dying please
I'm dying I'm dying please
Under your skin
Under your skin
