Courtney Love, Dying

You've seen the crippled dance Be your money baby, now's your chance

I am so dumb Just beam me up I've had it all forever I've had enough

Remember, you promised me I'm dying, I'm dying please I want to, I need to be... Under your skin Our love is quicksand, So easy to drown They steal the gravity out From moving ground

Remember, you promised me I'm dying, I'm dying please I want to I need to be Under your skin

And now I understand You leave with everything You leave with everything Remember....

And I now I know that love is dead You come to bury me. There's nothing left here to pretend..

Remember you promised me.. I'm dying, I'm dying please I want to, I need to be Under your skin

I'm dying I'm dying please I'm dying I'm dying please I'm dying I'm dying please Under your skin Under your skin
