

Coyote Shivers, Happiness Is A Warm Bong

Now that yer gone
I stay in all day long
Got my curtains drawn
Time creeps along
But i must be strong
I must carry on
Cuz id rather be missing you
Than wishing you were gone
Now that yer gone
I'm up all night long
I cant sleep till dawn
Time creeps along
But i must be strong
I must carry on
Cuz id rather be missing you
Id rather be missing you
Than wishing you were gone
Yeah id rather be missing you
Than wishing you were gone
Now that yer gone
I feel like i cant go on
I stumble round like a moron
Got my curtains drawn
Time creeps along
I wish they'd drop the bomb
Yeah i wish they'd drop the bomb
Oh how i wish they'd drop the bomb
But i must be strong
I must somehow carry on
I must find happiness
In a warm bong
I got my stereo on
I got my favorite song
Ill play my favorite song
Ill play my favorite song and
I will be strong yeah
I will be strong yeah
I will be strong
And i will carry on
Cuz id rather be missing you
Id rather be missing you
Id rather be missing you
Than wishing you were gone
Yeah id rather be missing you
Than wishing you were gone
