

Coyote Shivers, The Truth

They said if it feels good,
it must be bad.
But they also said that rock and roll was just a fad.

Anyways!

Who cares!?
What's good or bad?
I know just what I want,
and what I shall have.

They said you best be good little girls and boys or Santa Claus won't bring you no toys.
But you know you always got something,
no matter how you been.
The moral of the story is,
live in sin!
YEAH!

Do unto other as you'd have them do unto you.
I guess that means I should give head to you.
and while we're on the subject of philosophy.
I want to live my life on LSD.
YEAH!

They said if it feels good,
it must be bad.
but they also said that rock and roll was just a fad.

Anyways!

Who cares?
What's good or bad?
I know just what I want,
and what I shall have.
YEAH!
