

Crack The Sky, Lose That Girl

I can't get to her
You don't know what I'm going through
She says I keep her satisfied but I know she's got her eye on you
I can't get to her
And it's driving me down
When I hold her close at night
She seems to be some other place
When I look into her eyes man I can almost see your face
She's on fire, burning for you
I can see it when she's lookin at me
I'm gonna lose that girl
I'm gonna lose that girl
I can't get to her
No matter what I try to do
She keeps telling me there's nothing wrong but I can see the way she looks at you
You're gonna take her
Away from me
Now I would ask you not to do it but you see I understand
I was feeling just like you are
When I stole her from her man
