

Crack The Sky, Maybe I Can Fool Everybody (Tonight)

This place it hides this fear
It makes me glad I'm here
I close my eyes away
From days just like today
This glass of in between
Protects the can't be seen
I pull these blinds away
You pull these blinds away

Chorus

Maybe I can fool everybody tonight
Maybe I can make everybody believe in me
Maybe I can fool everybody
And fool myself if I'm really lucky
Maybe I can fool everybody tonight

These trails in frantic pace
Into the lions face
I stand in cautious wait
A lion at the gate

This dress of in between
I pull this coat around
You pull this coat around
