This is a story about a dog, a dog

When I ride my bike

And my hair is blowing straight back

I think of you wearing that brown mohair sweater

Soft mounds of breasts underneath

Or better yet one of those squigly aluminum lawn chairs

I'm putting sun tan lotion on your long legs

A-wearing a broad rim straw hat

Pair of mickey mouse sunglasses

Looking just like lolita

White sheets hanging on the line

White sheets blowing in the wind

A satellite dish pointed straight up at the heavens
