Cracker, Teen Angst

I don't know what the world may need But I'm sure as hell that is starts with me And that's a wisdom I've laughed at

I don't know what the world may want But a good stiff drink it surely don't So I think I'll go and fix myself a tall one

Cause, what the world needs now
Is a new kind of tension
Cause the old one just bores me to death
Cause, what the world needs now
Is another folk singer
Like I need a hole in my head

I don't know what the world may need But a V8 engine is a good start for me Think I'll drive to find a place To be surly I don't know what the world may want But some words of wisdom could comfort us Think I'll leave that up to someone wiser

Cause, what the world needs now Are some true words of wisdom Like La La La La La La La La Cause, what the world needs now Is another folk singer Like I need a hole in my head

I don't know what the world may need And I never grasped your complexities I'd be happy just to get your attention And, I don't know what the world may want But your long, sweet body lying next To mine could certainly raise my spirits

Cause what the world needs now Is a new Frank Sinatra
So I can get you in bed
What the world needs now Is another folk singer
Like I need a hole in my head
What the world needs now
What the world needs now Is another folk singer

Like I need a hole in my head What the world needs now What the world needs now Is a new Frank Sinatra So I can get you in bed

What the world needs now What the world needs now Is another folk singer Like I need a hole in my head

What the world needs now What the world needs now Is another folk singer Like I need a hole in my head
