Cradle of Filth, For Those Who Died (Japanese B

Our tongues they could not silence with their malicious lies Their unforgotten violence, remember those who died

And as my flesh is put to fire I hear their voices still Their unjust accusations demanding that I am killed

We shall show no mercy to heathen such as thee Who stand accused and have refused the Church's clemency Your wicked acts are endless though the crimes we cannot name Innocent or guilty proved, we'll burn you just the same

Burning, into the fire Burning, a funeral pyre Burning, into the fire Burning, a funeral pyre

This self-righteous inquisition is a plague upon our land As false as the confessions they force from shattered hands

We shall show no mercy to heathen such as thee Who stand accused and have refused the Church's clemency Your wicked acts are endless though the crimes we cannot name Innocent or guilty proved, we'll burn you just the same

Burning, into the fire Burning, a funeral pyre Burning, into the fire Burning, a funeral pyre

Abused my broken body is cleansed by righteous flame Their God a God of Mercy yet in whose name I slain

My innocence the victim of their superstitious fears Religious persecution for the past three hundred years Preaching peace and mercy 'neath the shadow of the knife A papal reign of terror, slaughter in the name of Christ

And as my flesh is put to fire I hear their voices still their unjust accusations demanding that I am killed

We shall show no mercy to heathen such as thee Who stand accused and have refused the Church's clemency Your wicked acts are endless though the crimes we cannot name Innocent or guilty proved, we'll burn you just the same

Burning, into the fire Burning, a funeral pyre Burning, into the fire Burning, a funeral pyre
