

Craig David, G Love (feat. Nippa)

Baby girl, you're the one
We've been rockin' for a minute
This love so dangerous
But when it comes down to us
And the shit that comes with it
Call that gangsta love
Baby girl, you're the one
We've been rockin' for a minute
This love so dangerous
But when it comes down to us
We call that gangsta love

Seven o'clock in the morning
And I ain't even been home
Spent the whole night performing
I'm the OG but never gettin' old
'Cause when I'm with you, I'm more than young
Awards I've won
You're the one that's slowin' the time
When all of the things I've done
Can't think of none
That's made you go and leave my side, oh

Yeah
So you talk that love, talk your shit
Rep like Bloods and walk like Crips
And when I'm out on road, you hold your lips
You gon' risk it all for me, yeah

Baby girl, you're the one
We've been rockin' for a minute
This love so dangerous
But when it comes down to us
And the shit that comes with it
Call that gangsta love
Baby girl, you're the one
We've been rockin' for a minute
This love so dangerous
But when it comes down to us
We call that gangsta love

You know I've been out here for a minute
But you know I'm always here
(Baby, come and work it out)
Yeah, I've been famed, so these women actin' different
But you know I'm always here
(Baby, who deserves you now?)
And don't worry if I leave with your cousin
She was in the corner, tryna show me some lovin', it's nothin'
I kick it like I always been thuggin'
It's that thugged up, gangsta lovin', yeah, yeah

So you talk that love (Yeah), talk your shit (Yeah)
Rep like Bloods and walk like Crips
And when I'm out on road, you hold your lips
You gon' risk it all for me, yeah

Baby girl, you're the one
We've been rockin' for a minute
This love so dangerous
But when it comes down to us
And the shit that comes with it
Call that gangsta love
Baby girl, you're the one

We've been rockin' for a minute
This love so dangerous
But when it comes down to us
We call that gangsta love

When I first met you, girl, I knew it was love, in the beginning
You were the one that picked me up from my job, when I was finished
You're the reason I can be who I want, and that's a blessing
We call that gangsta love

Baby girl, you're the one
We've been rockin' for a minute (Yeah)
This love so dangerous
But when it comes down to us (Oh, baby)
And the shit that comes with it
Call that gangsta love
Baby girl, you're the one (You're the one)
We've been rockin' for a minute
This love so dangerous
But when it comes down to us
We call that gangsta love

We call that gangsta love
