

Craig David, Key To My Heart (Blacksmith Remix)

It's how we do it one time
Blowin my mind
Please don't you decline
Ain't lyin'
Baby be mine
(Repeat x3)
Craig David, here's another one

Lonely hours
Lonely days
Never meant to drive you away from me
Yeah
I should've listened to you lady
And what you had to say
If only
Yeah
I never knew how much you feel for somebody after you've let them go,
Let them go
And you find out that it's too late to let your feelings show,
Feelings show
And even though I've done you so wrong
Don't you know
Like I know, baby

(chorus)
You see you've got the key to my heart, girl
Unlock me and take all my feelings apart
Cause when you said you had to leave
Had to go away, you closed the door on me
Yeah
You threw away the key

Started over, I'm feelin' down
Still can't believe that you're not around
I should have been there for you baby
But now I'm crying all this melody tonight
Yeah
I didn't realize that there's no other remedy to numb this pain,
Numb this pain
But if you come back in my life then maybe I can start to live again,
Live again
And even though you're being so strong
Don't you know
Like I know,
Ooh baby
(Chorus)

And every day and night I'm thinkin' about you constantly
Now I know for sure how much you really mean to me
Yeah
Sometimes I get a rush
And I see, how we were meant be
Lady
Chorus repeat x 2)

It's how we do it one time
Blowin my mind
Please don't you decline
Ain't lyin'
Baby be mine
(repeat x 3)
