

Craig David, Officially Yours

[Verse 1]

Looking how the story goes Helpless and a wishin'
Put the film inside my mind but there's a big scene that I'm missing
As I re-read my lines
I think I said this I should've said that Did you add me out of your mind
Cause in a flash you were disappeared
Gone

[Chorus]

Before the curtain falls
and we act this out again
Maybe I should risk it all and stay I'm officially going on the record to say I'm in love with you I'm officially everything you hoped that I would be
this time I'll tell the truth
I'm officially wrong I know
for letting you go the way I did Unconditionally more? than I ever was before
I'm officially yours

[Verse 2]

Driving down this road again
Gotta make a few decisions Don't want you to feel this hurt again that's why I'm hopin that you're listenin'
If you let me press rewind
I'll rehearse every word
I should have said cause girl I'm ready to make things right and end the stage so we can move on

[Chorus]

And before the curtain falls
and we act this out again
missing pieces of us also stay I'm officially going on
I'm officially everything you hoped that i would be
this time I'll tell the truth
I'm officially wrong I know
for letting you go the way I did
unconditionally more? than I ever was before
I'm officially yours

[Bridge]

Things i should have said like i appreciate the time that I spent with you Inspire me with a smile I put on your pretty face my world comes alive
now I know this time i'm not letting go cause I'm officially yours
I'm officially everything you hoped that I would be

this time I'll tell the truth
I'm officially wrong I know
For letting you go the way I did
unconditionally more? than I ever was before

[Chorus]

I'm officially everything you hoped that i would be
this time i'll tell the truth
I'm officially wrong I know
For letting you go the way I did
unconditionally more? than I ever was before

Girl I'm unconditionally yours
Officially yours, your man
Girl I'm unconditionally yours
Officially yours, I am
