

Craig David, Please don't turn me on

Mmm-hmm

I mean it (I mean it)

Dont say it, babe (dont say it, babe)

Hear me now now

Said ah, please dont turn me on

No, no listen, listen

Baby, wont you keep your distance

Youre getting too close to me

Ive been feeling my resistance

Melting away

But she said she wouldnt mind

If I spent a little time

Said you were a friend of mine

She could trust me out of sight

Now two bottles later on

And I think I stayed too long

I forget where I belong

Saying please dont turn me on

Its getting late I know I should be gone

Dont push me cos Im not that strong (no, no, no, no)

You can never make it right from wrong (no, no, no, no)

Please dont touch me there

Stop playing with my mind its not fair

When you know Ive got another who cares

And shes waiting for me somewhere out there, yeah

Dont say my love is too familiar

Cos shes everything to me

Dont say what she dont know wont kill her (ooh)

Im playing away

Put your hands where I can see

Baby, you know what I mean

Cos youre looking good to me

And you know I feel the heat

As you button up your dress

And I wake up in your bed

With a head full of regrets

Saying please dont turn me on

Its getting late I know I should be gone

Dont push me cos Im not that strong (no, no, no, no)

You can never make it right from wrong (no, no, no, no)

Please dont touch me there

Stop playing with my mind its not fair

When you know Ive got another who cares

And shes waiting for me somewhere out there, yeah

Dont want to lose the love I have

Cos once its gone cant take it back

You know that I want to

Doesnt matter what I hear you say

I see the look thats in your eyes (no, no)

Please dont turn me on

Its getting late I know I should be gone (I should be gone)

Dont push me cos Im not (Im not) that strong

(Im not that strong, baby)

You can never make it right from wrong (and oh)

Please dont touch me there

Stop playing with my mind its not fair (oh no)

When you know Ive got another who cares

(She cares about me)

And shes waiting for me (and she loves me)

Somewhere out there (and she needs me)

Please dont turn me on

Its getting late I know I should be gone

(You know I should be gone)

Dont push me cos Im not that strong

(Im not that strong)
You can never make it right from wrong (from wrong)
Please dont touch me there (touch me there)
Stop playing with my mind its not fair
