

Crash Rickshaw, Co-Dependent Idolatry

Wanna give, not get
Life is more than I
Never let the left know what the right has done
Loving to be loved it never solved or built anything
Respond, React
Can't tell them apart 'till I'm knocked on my back
I want love that's patient
Want love that's kind
Never jealous
When I know that that ain't mine
Remaining cool when rules I've set are broken or taken away
