

Crash Test Dummies, Put Me In A Corner Of You

You could be away for quite some time
But you'd never leave my foolish mind
You can step right on my foolish heart
You had me hooked, you had me from the start

Put me in a corner of your mind
Think of me and you from time to time
Take me to a place I'd rather see
Show me someone I would rather be

You could step into my open door
I never felt this crazy way before
Just the way you walk right down the street
You never ever miss a single beat

Put me in a corner of your mind
Think of me and you from time to time
Take me to a place I'd rather see
Show me someone I would rather be

You can fall asleep and I won't mind
You can dream the dreams deep in your mind
I will lie awake and hear you breathe
Just promise me that you will never leave

Put me in a corner of your mind
Think of me and you from time to time
Take me to a place I'd rather see
Show me someone I would rather be
