Crashd?et, Alone

Pickin' up the phone Ain't an option now I wanna use the gun tonite Lyin' on the bed Beggin for the blow Feelin' kinda dead Aching to the bone Breathing down yer spine In a darkened room I wanna take my time But it's heading out of line Craving for your touch That's gonna bring me down Like a kiss of death I just can't turn away I can be the one alone I can be the one alone I can be your own alone Don't you kill the light Let's keep the dark away I wanna see those eyes Tonite I can take my life And give it all to you I'd even do it twice All alone for you I can be the one alone I can be your own alone
