

Crashd?et, Falling Rain

She's an angel working the backstreets
With the addict and the deadbeats
Just another hopeless teenage tragedy
Sell it all to a perfect stranger
All the trix have begun to change her
Daddy's girl has become someone else's fantasy
Ooh you see it in her eyes
Ooh the way she tells her lies
Taste of falling rain
Tears of shame, falling rain
Taste of falling rain
Refuse to see the end
Taste of falling rain
Leaves a stain, falling rain
She's a midnite company provider
All the johns wait in line to try her
At the end of the rainbow there's no gold
Cause they're all just drunk with power
They can rent her by the hour
It's her only shelter from the cold
Ooh you see it in her eyes
Ooh the way she tells her lies
Taste of falling rain
Tears of shame, falling rain
Taste of falling rain
Refuse to see the end
Taste of falling rain
Years she can't replace
She's so far away
Taste of falling rain
Taste of falling rain
She's so far away
Taste of falling rain
Taste of falling rain
