

Crashdog, Dream So Vain

I paint a dream so vain
About you in my mind
It's everything I feel
The freedom I need to find
I'll give you all my hope
Your beauty is fair
You're the one I'm longing for
But reality isn't there
A dream so deep inside
Feels like apart of me
If it dies it will take me with
Where I can no longer be
In a restless rage
I cry a life of discontent
Mastered by a dream so vain again
