

Craving Theo, Welcome You

Inside this place of sorrow life begins to end
Living in this place of horror time here relives
I welcome you
I welcome you

Try to grasp what we have here, no-one will let you in
In this space there is no reason, it's all about who wins
Our prayers about you and all your needs will go away with passing time it's clear you'll know today Arriving inward you'll find the truth of everything and everyone misplaced before your door
I welcome you
I welcome you

I welcome you
I welcome you
