

Crazy Town, Waste Of My Time

She was My Heart, my soul, my girl, my life I want that shit, I'll make that sacrifice. you know I know, you know What's on my mind I like the sex but where just wastin' time no replay's, like Shifty please stay sick of breakin' up every other week day and we cant seem to see, eye to eye you even yell when I try to get high and I cant keep you, your evil and all my friends think that I should leave you it's a stand still that I try to see through but your actin' like a bitch so I got to leave you oh, I think iv seen this once before I know the way it ends when you just walk out the front door
oh, I think iv seen this once before
I know the way it ends when you just walk out the front door your just a waste of my time, waste of my time, waste of my time, waste of my time my time
you came, I went, you sore, I fucked, I left. went neck to neck, but now it's sudden death.
get out of my bed, I came to make it mine. don't wont no head, stop all that wastin' time.
I know the way it ends when you just walk out the front door
oh, I think iv seen this once before
I know the way it ends when you just walk out the front door
your just a waste of my time, waste of my time, waste of my time, waste of my time
my time
waste of my time, waste of my time, waste of my time, waste of my time
my time
I'm mad but, I packed your bags up. put 'em by the door, you can have that stuff.
Story of the whore, and the man's bad luck but it's all for the best I guess, Next now I feel like the man on the moon, like staring down on the world lookin' for a new girl and a new life, now I guess one day, some day I'm a get it right
oh, I think iv seen this once before
I know the way it ends when you just walk out the front door
oh, I think iv seen this once before
I know the way it ends when you just walk out the front door
your just a waste of my time, waste of my time, waste of my time, waste of my time
your just a waste of my... time
