

Cree Summer, Smooth My Heart

It's a good journey i'm in no hurry
I can see chaos heading straight for me
Give me the dark night let the sun ignore me
'Cause everything's alright even what ain't good for me

It's a good journey I'm in no hurry
Not looking for handouts don't need no glory
Leave my conditions leave my edges blurry
Got nothing to hold to can't stay gracefully

Make my silence softer
Take the thrill out of my anger
May I sleep through the heat
And wake up a stranger

I'll smooth my heart down long enough
For the world to come around
