

Creeper Lagoon, So Little To Give

If you'll leave here, she said
Turn the lights off, I'm alone again
Every place that I go
Reminds me of you, you know

I'm asking a lot
For someone who's got
I'm asking a lot
With so little to give
So little to give

I can't deny
I see your face in the back of my mind
And in between every scene
There's a spot where she's kissing me

I'm asking a lot
For someone who's got
I'm asking a lot
With so little to give
So little to give

Don't worry it's all okay
It all turns to ash anyway
Burn fire twilight all night

Everywhere that I stare
I only see roads leading to nowhere
In the end I'm just a friend
Whose song is just slowly drifting away again

I'm asking a lot
For someone who's got
I'm asking a lot
With so little to give
So little to give

You know I love you
Are the last words
Before the knife goes in
